Three Town Employees Escape Death In Crash

Legal Procedure Plus Storms Delayed Work

Yesterday Town Manager Monahan said that work on the closing of the total Ryder street crossing had begun on Monday with driving holes for poles.

After getting a final legal decision as to whether the crossing could be shut off, the Selectmen voted to do so on Dec. 19, Monahan said. Legal proceedings and investigation took over a month, he said.

On Dec. 22, Monahan ordered the Park dept. to begin the work of erecting barriers, weather permitting. Monahan said that the recent storms causing ice conditions and floods, plus the recent holidays, had caused delay in the work.

Attendance "Poor"

Only 78 per cent of the Town Meeting members attended the special session Monday night. Most observers called the record "poor."

The tally:

Legal total 243
Vacancies 6

Potential total 237
Present 185
Absent 52

Of the nine additional members at large, seven were present.

Three Park Dept. employees miraculously escaped death yesterday morning when a Boston & Maine train smashed into a Town truck in which they were riding, at the Ryder street crossing.

It was the second such accident at Ryder street in three months.

Joseph Cartmel died as the result of a similar accident there.

The three Town employees were rushed to Symmes Hospital. All were admitted but none was placed on the danger list.

The three are William L. McCarthy, 45, of 1166 Massachusetts ave., Philip E. Preston, 34, of 24 Pond View rd. and Daniel F. O'Connor, 44, of 105 Medford st.

McCarthy suffered possible fractures of the left upper arm and shoulder and right knee and ankle, contusions of the left ankle, and a lacerated scalp.

Preston suffered scalp lacerations, contusions of the left shoulder, and possible fractured ribs and skull.

O'Connor suffered possible back injuries, contusions of the left leg, and minor bruises. One of the men had been taken ill while working and was being driven home at the time of the accident, it was said.

The train was enroute to Boston from Bedford.

The train struck the rear of the truck.

A Boston & Maine official said the engineer, Edward Finlay, blew the whistle, but the truck kept on going. Observers, however, said that no warning was given by whistle or bell, officials announced.

Owens Railroad Ave.

The Town now owns Railroad ave. and the strip of land at the rear of the Old Town Hall.

The deed arrived at the Selectmen's office this week. The Town purchased the land and street from the B & M railroad for around $300, largely to cover legal court costs.

40 Firemen Transferred In Big Shift

Vaccine Orders Awaited Here

Despite reports that Massachusetts would distribute Salk polio vaccine again, Board of Health officials have not been so notified.

"I have heard nothing official as yet," said J. Philip Bower, of the Board of Health yesterday.

"All I know is what I read. As to allocation of the vaccine, we know nothing," he said. Until such time as we are officially notified, we cannot formulate any plans," said Bower.

Other Articles

Besides the feature article of the sale of land to the Catholic church, the Special Town Meeting passed the three other articles without debate.

Under Article 2, the Finance Committee recommended that $500 more be appropriated for the use of the Joint Planning Committee, the sum to be taken from available funds. The approving vote was unanimous.

The money is needed in order to publish its report and make it available to every Town Meeting Member, it was explained.

Another unanimous vote approved an act relative to increasing the amounts of pension retirement annuities, payable to certain former public employees. The total cost to the Town would be $5800 and applies only to 30 retired employees. All retired before 1951.

The Meeting also voted in a body to appropriate an additional $5500 for equipment and furnishings for the alteration and reconstruction of the Town Hall.

The sum will be spent to establish the offices of the Board of Selectmen in the wing formerly occupied by the Manager and the Public Works Department; also in the Clerk's office and the Hearing Room.

Carmel Quinn of TV Visits St. James Sun.

Carmel Quinn, TV and radio star of the Arthur Godfrey programs, will be a special guest at the St. James C.Y.O. monthly communion meeting Sunday, it was learned late yesterday.

Rev. Robert W. Shea and the committee visited Miss Quinn after a Boston appearance, and she consented to attend the meeting in the St. James School Hall after the 8 a.m. mass.

Approves School

In an unprecedented display of accord, the Special Town Meeting passed four articles involving money without argument at a 1-hour session Monday night.

The sale of land on Summer st. to St. Agnes' church for $12,014.24 was unanimously approved by oral vote.

All business was completed by 9:15 p.m. Almost 40 minutes of the hour session was consumed by committee reports.

The land purchased by the Church consists of all of the lower section of the present area, currently being used for Town dumping.

The Town had gained the land by eminent domain in two separate takings. The smaller, or lower portion was taken in 1933 and the larger section in 1930.

In brief, the church has purchased all of the lower portion and one third of the large piece — a total of 154,650 sq. ft. — at about 7 3/4 cents per foot.

The Town paid $12,014.24 for the land and the Finance Committee asked the same price.

Arthur Saul, chairman of the committee, explained the Town's position to the members after Moderator Harold Magnuson read the article. He said that in most cases of land disposal the Selectmen are authorized to sell the land to the highest bidder. He pointed out that this was a directive sale to one buyer.

The floor was then given to

Reports

A full report of the committee studying amendments to the Town Manager Act will be made available to the Annual Town Meeting in March, it was announced by John O. Parker at the Special Town Meeting Monday night.

Parker, chairman of the committee, made a preliminary report of the group's recommendations.

Strong Position

Of paramount interest was the committee's recommendation of a general prohibition of any Town official doing business with the Town. The committee feels strongly about this, Parker said.

A.H.S. - Boys' Club Five Play Dream Game Here

The March of Dimes benefit game between the Arlington Boys' Club basketball team and the Arlington High School squad will be staged at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 14, at the Junior High West gymnasium.

The high school team recently won an informal basketball tournament at the Browne & Nichols School by defeating Browne & Nichols 72-30; Wellesley 63-52 and Boston English 63-62.

It will feature Captain Don Beardsley, a 6 ft., 1 in. player who tops the scoring list with an average of 16 points a game; 6 ft., 2 in. Bill Birtwell with a 15 point average; center Joe Madigan, 6 ft., 3 in., who has 12 points a game to his scoring achievement;

Richie Crowley, 6 ft., 1 in., who also averages 12 points and Charlie Piggott, 6 ft., 1 in., who has 8 points a game to his credit.

The reserves include Leo McSweeney, Jack Young, Paul Parr, Joe Skenderian, Dick Morel, Steve Tavekelian and Tom McKenna.

Local observers feel that the A.H.S. team is one of the best in the league.

Boys' Club coaches Bill Bonin and Dave Crowley Sr. are predicting a close win for their team.

Eight out of the eleven players are formerly George Lowder's boys.

The team has played six games winning four of the six. The starting line-up includes

Dick O'Connell, center, standing 6 ft., 4 in., and averaging 24 points a game; John Bowler, 6 ft., playing right forward, with 16 points a game to his credit; Bob Crowley, a six footer playing left forward; Dick Bowler, a 5 ft., 11 in. left guard averaging 19 points and Dave Crowley a right forward standing 6 ft., 3 in.

The reserve members include Bobby Bowler, Charley Daley, Paul Leonard, John Crowley, Ollie French and Charley Leveroni.

The team mascot is Frank Sexton.

Seven of the boys are attending college.

Jackie Bowler and Charley Daley are credited with winning the Boys' Club good sportsmanship award which is awarded to an outstanding member of the club each year. Jackie won the award in 1950 and Charley received the honor in 1953.

Following the game there will be a square dance with a caller on hand.

The March of Dimes has planned the evening for all townspeople.

All junior and senior high school students will be given a March of Dimes card during the week. The cards will be filled with dimes and handed in at the door, giving everyone an opportunity to receive a door prize.

All proceeds are given to the March of Dimes.

With the increase in polio during 1955, an effort is being made to top the 1956 quota.

St. James CYO Meets This Sunday

On Sunday, Jan. 15, more than 900 officers and members of St. James C.Y.O. will attend the eight o'clock mass and receive holy communion in a body.

The mass will be celebrated by Rev. Robert W. Shea, C.Y.O. director.

A special musical program has been arranged for the mass by St. James C.Y.O. choir, consisting of more than 100 voices, under the direction of Mrs. Roderick J. Macdonald.

All the members will adjourn to the school hall immediately after mass. A light collation will be served and the usual monthly meeting will take place.

The new president for the year 1956 is Carole A. Murphy, a senior at Regis College in Weston.

In the name of the officers and members of the organization, Miss Murphy will present a framed picture of the 1956 C.Y.O. officers and a missal to the retiring first president, Paul E. Cochran.

Arranges Program

Elizabeth J. Dolan, the new spiritual chairman, has arranged the program.

St. James C.Y.O. Girls' quartet, consisting of Noreen Callahan, Janice Gilfeather, Rita Heffron and Janice Meehan, will open the meeting with the singing of popular numbers.

James M. Colliton, physical chairman, will give a detailed account of the cadet and junior boys' basketball team and the junior girls' basketball team.

Agatha J. Sicari, a graduate of Emmanuel College in 1953, an outstanding soloist, will present a few well known selections.

The guest speaker for the monthly meeting will be Francis S. Grant, Jr., a member of the Archdiocesan C.Y.O. Speakers' Bureau. A 14-year-old South Boston boy, he attends the Gate of Heaven High School in South Boston and is president of his sophomore class.

As a freshman in High School, he was chosen to represent the parochial schools of his home district at the annual exercises commemorating Evacuation Day.

Honored For Speech

On this occasion he delivered an original speech, "Our Heritage—The American Way of Life." During his speech he drew tears to the eyes of many and at the conclusion of his speech won a five minute standing ovation.

The principal speaker at these historical exercises, United States Senator Patrick V. McNamara of Michigan, thanked him for best laying down the challenge to the elders of his age.

Mayor Hynes of Boston called the boy's oration "the finest declamation from the lips of a young man I have ever heard, or that we are likely to hear again in our lives."

Cite Speaker

So great was his speech that every Boston newspaper carried it on the front pages of their papers on the following day and repeated it many times in the next few weeks.

The City Council of Boston on March 14, 1955 cited Francis S. Grant, Jr. and passed a resolution at their meeting that his speech should be printed as a public document and made available to all Boston school children.

Further recognition was given by the Congressman from his home district, Hon. John W. McCormack, when he had the speech inserted in the Congressional Record of Thursday, May 26, 1955.

This same speech Francis will deliver to the officers and members of St. James C.Y.O. on next Sunday morning.

MR. and MRS. JOHN H. KING
(Alca Edna Perri)

Rochford - Tillotson

At the Church of St. John the Evangelist in Boston, Miss Betsey Eugenia Tillotson became the bride of 2nd Lt. Richard Drake Rochford, US MCR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sanborn Rochford of Arlington, recently.

The Rev. Grenville Mercer Williams, S.S.J.E., was assisted by the Rev. Ernest Banner, S.S.J.E., in performing the 3 o'clock ceremony. The bride, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth James Tillotson of Belmont, was given in marriage by her father.

A reception followed at the Winchester Country Club.

The bride's gown of pale ivory yarn-dyed taffeta had a fitted bodice of re-embroidered Alencon lace, a square neckline and long pointed sleeves. Lace motifs embellished the front and back of the full circular skirt, which terminated in a long train. A cap of taffeta, Alencon lace and seed pearls held her finger-tip veil of illusion in place and she carried a bouquet of Eucharis lilies and stephanotis.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Theodore Loren Tillotson of Cambridge. Her American Beauty ballerina-length gown had a bouffant skirt and with it she wore a wreath of matching velvet leaves and carried a semi-crescent bouquet of feathered pale pink carnations and marble queen variegated ivy.

The bridesmaids were Miss Cynthia Myra Burton of Darien, Conn.; Miss Ann Canfield, Miss Priscilla Langley of Belmont; and Miss Cheryl Worthen of West Newton. They wore similar gowns and wreaths, but carried semi-crescent bouquets of feathered pale pink carnations with maple leaf ivy. Mrs. James W. Brantley of Nogaleo, Ariz., was an honorary bridesmaid.

Mrs. Tillotson wore a jade green gown with a matching taffeta hat for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Rochford, the bridegroom's mother, was gowned in Dior blue pure silk satin with a matching blue and white feathered hat.

The bridegroom had his father as his best man. The ushers included James Edward Tillotson of Belmont; Ensign Theodore Loren Tillotson USNR of Cambridge; Lt. Markham Forbes Rollins of Bronxville, N. Y.; Kenneth Frederick Johnson of Winchester; Waldo Elliott Pratt, 3rd, of Boston, and Gerald Temple LaMarque of Rye, N. Y.

Alan Bruce Hughes of Arlington was an honorary usher. The bride was graduated from the Brimmer and May school, and from Bradford Junior College with the class of 1955. She made her debut in the 1953-54 season.

The bridegroom prepared at Belmont Hill school and was graduated from Babson Institute in 1955. They will postpone their wedding trip until February and will live in Triangle, Va.

'TAIN'T SO!

Two prominent businessmen at the Heights took full advantage of a blunder in this paper. Much kidding took place. In last week's issue, the name of R. R. Hudson, owner of Ben Franklin Store, appeared in an advertisement as proprietor of Wanamaker's Hardware — by mistake. Late Saturday afternoon Ralph Hudson appeared at Wanamaker's and asked for "his share of the profits." John Wanamaker countered well. He pointed out that the weather and business for the past few days had been punk; and that Hudson, as pseudo proprietor, ought to make up the deficit. Hudson sallied with the fact that the use of his name was valuable and that a slight remuneration was in order. The rebuttal by Wanamaker was that, while his friend's name had a nice sound vocally, the cash register had been quite silent since the publication of said name. The two then conferred and decided that each liked owning their own business and wanted no part of the other's. Each gave the other permission to go home at 6 p.m. and not report to work until 8:30 a.m. Monday.

Mrs. Bogosian, financial chairman of the League of Women Voters, den. mother, Cub Scouts, and former head of Professional Group of the Community Fund, stated: "Dedicated to the solution of the country's foremost health problem, the Heart Fund drive merits the support of every thinking citizen. It is a challenge and opportunity that no one of us can afford to forego," she said in accepting the chairmanship. "Heart Sunday", to be held February 26, will mark the climax of the campaign as an army of volunteers conducts a door to door collection.

Local Store Honors Franklin's Name With Sale And Gifts

Ralph R. Hudson, owner of the local Ben Franklin Store at Arlington Heights, announced today that his store is making plans to join in a nationwide celebration of Benjamin Franklin's 250th Birthday Anniversary. Locally the celebration will take the form of a "Thrift Week" sale event in the Ben Franklin Store, featuring a number of merchandise specials.

The local store is planning to provide school children with a colorful, 48-page biography of Franklin which carefully outlines, with pictures, his life, career, and many contributions to mankind. During "Thrift Week" these booklets will be made available to school children at no charge. Other prizes are planned for adult customers, also.

Hudson explained that the local store is participating in this event as a member of a nationwide organization of over 2400 independently owned Ben Franklin Stores, named in honor of one of America's greatest patriots.

It was Benjamin Franklin who, in 1754, first urged the colonies to unite to form this great nation in which we live today. He immediately foresaw that greater things could be accomplished by the colonies working as a group as compared to each colony going its separate way.

Same Philosophy Today Hudson said, "This same philosophy is being successfully practiced today by the more than 2400 Ben Franklin Stores — working together as a united group — commanding far greater bargaining power in the buying market than any one individual could hope to possess.

"Such a cooperative policy makes it possible for each independently owned Ben Franklin Store to provide better service for the community it serves," he added. The Franklin Institute in Philadelphia reports that more than 500 societies, associations, institutions and Government departments in 40 countries are participating in the observance of Benjamin Franklin's birthday.

Mr. Hudson declared that the celebration will draw the

His Ideals Made AMERICA Great!

A TRIBUTE TO BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

In Commemoration Of His 250th Birthday Anniversary

BORN JANUARY 17, 1706

Benjamin Franklin had a wide range of ideals and sympathies, truly majestic in scope, and gave the world a wealth of practical ideas in education, medicine, science and civic improvement. His advice was constantly sought by leaders of his time. In 1754, twenty-two years before he became a signer of the Declaration of Independence, Mr. Franklin wrote a treatise urging the Colonies to unite. He knew what united action could achieve, and his is believed to be the first public word to take root, grow and become the United States of America. . . .

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN
Would Have Heartily Approved the Idea of Independent Stores Banding Together to Effect Economies and Improve Service

He would have been first to realize that no one of the 2,400 Ben Franklin Stores bearing his name could have gained the vast advantages for its customers which ALL command by working together.

WARM-HAND CONGRATULATIONS!

The complete accord displayed at the Special Town Meeting was most gratifying and Arlington certainly has full right to feel warmth in its heart.

Too often, complete unanimity can be the result of indifference, ignorance or sullenness. In the case of the sale of the Town land for a parochial high school, however, the exact opposite was true. Thus, the unanimous vote was truly valid. Because surely:

—the entire citizenry showed and expressed huge interest in the proposition.

—due to cooperation of all parties, committees and boards concerned, this paper was able to give it wide publicity and, after being able to gather the facts easily, was able to express itself editorially firmly and with full confidence.

—while there were no doubt some few among the Town Meeting members who in full conscience might have voted "no". The fact that they did not stemmed not from sullenness but because they realize they were in small minority. Their silence presented a warm handshake of congratulations to the side which had won over the huge majority.

So we, too, would like to congratulate everyone, too!

We believe several of you have started a "new era" in publicity and information with your preliminary reports at the Special Town Meeting.

REPORTS

The recommendation of an amendment to Section 30, covering this practice, would create a problem of balance, according to Parker.

The Committee's recommendation for the ban excludes Town Meeting Members, minor stock holders, and people concerned by mere employment by a corporation. Parker stressed the fact that the members themselves would have to decide upon the limits of the recommendation in March.

"Refranchise"

Other expected recommendations include a tightening up of the appointment terminology which he feels is "ambiguous"; making the Town Accountant independent of the Town Manager; placing school custodians under the school department but keeping the school maintenance men under the Manager; and amendments to the Trust Commissioners section.

Another recommendation will be the "refranchising" members of the Board of Selectmen, School and Finance Committees so that they may hold the office of Town Meeting member.

Parker said that the committee did not recommend the lowering of requirements to the Manager's post.

Parmenter Summation
F. Lawrence Doherty of the Parmenter School Building Committee made a final report. He said that $3,450.96 was the balance from the amount appropriated for the building last March. The total cost was $153,049.04. The balance will be returned to the Town.

Brief reports of progress were made by John Wright, chairman of the Reservoir Field and Playground Committee; Percival Richardson, chairman of the Reservoir Beach Committee; Robert Zwicker, chairman of the Pittsburg Land Tax Plan; John L. Murphy, chairman of the committee to study Town By-Laws; and Elliott R. Perkins of the committee studying activities on Spy Pond.

Corcoran To Run For Moderator

On Tuesday evening a group of 23 Arlington citizens met to discuss the vacancy for Town Moderator created by Judge Harold E. Magnuson's announcement that he will not seek re-election in the rapidly approaching town election.

Those present, most of whom are Town Meeting members, voted to ask Attorney Lawrence E. Corcoran of 146 George st. to allow his name to be placed in nomination.

Attorney Corcoran has been a Town Meeting Member for 20 years and Moderator of the Yankee Network Forum sponsored by the American Bar Association for five years.

A spokesman for the committee which is now being organized, reports that Lawrence E. Corcoran has consented to be a candidate and that nomination papers were received from the Town Clerk for Atty. Corcoran by Eugene A. Leonard of 105 Wildwood ave.

Leonard has announced that a meeting has been planned for this week to choose a campaign committee for Corcoran. Lawrence Corcoran has an impressive background and is well known in local civic affairs.

Most recently he was appointed by the present Moderator to the committee to study the Town Manager Act and on a state plane, he is vice president of the Massachusetts Civic League.

Atty. Corcoran is a graduate of Arlington High, Harvard College and Harvard Law School.

He was state chairman of the Public Information Committee of the American Bar Association from 1947 to 1950, and moderator of its radio programs from 1946 to 1950.

He was an alternate delegate to the Democratic National Convention in 1952 and has been a Town Meeting Member since 1935. He was secretary of the Arlington Committee on Town Government in 1947 and 1948.

Corcoran is a former president of the Arlington Heights Improvement Assn., present Advocate of Arlington Council, K. of C., and an active member of Arlington Lodge of Elks.

The candidate is also on the Commissioners Staff, Arlington Boy Scouts, and is a member of a State street, Boston, law firm.

That Man About Town

By MAT

What a Town Meeting!

Lightning has struck twice in the same spot—the Ryder street crossing. Yesterday, three town employees were badly hurt here when a Park dept. truck was struck by the morning commuter train. A man died after an accident in the same spot, in the same way, at the same hour about three months ago.

It is known that the Selectmen started a probe of what could be done to prevent recurrence back in October. After investigation, it was decided a barrier could be put up on the Park Dept. lands, on the Summer street playground side and work was started, ironically enough, one day before the second accident.

That's the report.

But people still want to know why so long? One Selectman is quoted as saying that he, personally, has brought the matter up 6 or 7 times at meetings since October. Bad weather and legal investigation sure, but why so long?

The Town Counsel should publish a timetable of his procedure in the matter.

Tryouts for the Gilbert & Sullivan show "Babes in Toyland" were held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week. The results won't be announced until later this week.

The basketball team beat Brookline, 46-44, Friday night at Junior High West. The score was tied in the last few minutes with Arlington holding the ball. In the last seconds Joe Madigan tossed the basket and was the hero of the night. The Junior Varsity also won.

The dramatic club will put on a matinee Thursday at 3 p.m. of their play "Ghost Train" besides the regular Friday night show. The cast includes Gladys Jephelian as Miss Bourne, John Ottoson as Teddy Deakin, Pat Anderson and John Craig as the honeymoon couple, Peggy and Charles Murdock, Ellie Bibber and Norman Hewey, a feuding couple, Robert Dennis as Saul and Janice McKelvie, a hysterical female. The four candidates, June Aubrey, Claire Meo, John Ottoson and Joe Skenderian, for the European trip this summer, have received their applications which are miles long. They must be sent into the American Field Service by Monday.

The A.H.S. basketball team beat Waltham 64-57 Tuesday afternoon at Waltham. High scorers were Ritchie Crowley with 26 points, Joe Madigan, with 16 points and Captain Buzz Bardsley with 13 points. Also winning was the J.V.'s with the score 34-27.

Keefe complimented Saul on his presentation and said he had nothing to add. He said he would, of course, answer any questions by the Members.

No questions were asked. Magnuson then asked for an oral vote. If the vote was not unanimous, he said, a standing vote would be taken because two-thirds vote is needed in such transactions.

The motion was carried by voice, unanimously.

After the meeting, it was rumored that the Archbishop and Monsignor Oscar R. O'Gorman decided to pay the asking price rather than run the risk of argument which might have led to religious friction in the Town. Previously it was announced the Church would offer $4,000.

Stipulations in the sale are:

Magnuson Declines To Run; Gives Praise To Yeames

Harold E. Magnuson announced that he would not seek re-election to the post of Town Moderator in the Town election, at the Special Town Meeting Monday.

He also singled out Arthur Yeames for recognition from the Town Meeting Members. Yeames is retiring from the post, by not seeking re-election, after 35 years as a Member.

At the opening of the Special Town Meeting, Magnuson said:

"At this time I would like to follow and adopt a suggestion which has been made, in which I am glad to concur, and in which at least one other town officer has concurred, that on this occasion we recognize nearly thirty-five years of continuous service since the establishment of the representative town meeting in the Town of Arlington by one of our members who has recently indicated his intention not to seek reelection.

"At this time I would like to ask Mr. Arthur Yeames to stand for just a second and be recognized by the body."

[Prolonged applause as Mr. Arthur O. Yeames rose and bowed in acknowledgement.]

"If I may ask the indulgence of the Town Meeting members for a personal matter, I would like to take this opportunity to express my deep gratitude and appreciation for the consideration, patience and cooperation which have been extended to me by you Town Meeting members, by the Chairman of the Finance Committee, the present chairman and the former chairman, Mr. Hayes, by the various chairmen and members of the Boards of Selectmen, by the present Town Counsel and the former Town Counsel Mr. Hamlet, and especially by our Town Clerk Mr. Golden, who has helped the Moderator in a thousand ways during the last six years of my service.

"The reason for asking your indulgence and taking this opportunity at this time to thank you is that I have definitely decided not to be a candidate for reelection.

"This is a decision which I have made most reluctantly and it is contrary to my personal desires.

"The traditions of this particular Town Meeting are very honorable.

"There have been many years of high quality of service.

"There have been colorful and entertaining characters on our Town Meeting floor.

"But the most important aspect has been the body of faithful and conscientious citizens who have been willing to serve and sit here night after night during sometimes long deliberations.

"My reasons for making this decision are, first, that in view of my judicial position, and even though there may be a possibility of having no opponent the fact of having one's name on the ballot might be considered unbecoming to a judge, although there is precedent in the Town of Arlington to the contrary.

"Secondly, I desperately feel the need of more time to fulfill my other professional responsibilities but, thirdly, and most important of all, I am sure that there are many of you Town Meeting members who are well qualified and able to serve better than I in aiding this meeting in an orderly and efficient deliberation of its business, in determining the decision of the majority or two-thirds or whatever the law may so require, and in that way representing the will of the people, and in so doing protecting and respecting the rights of the minority, and even each and every individual Town Meeting member and citizen.

On My Oath . . . by Frank Caldwell

LIFES INEQUITIES: If you ever want to boast that you've been on a tough street, walk through Dover from Tremont to Washington street, at night. During the day it's a quiet, short street, with blocks of dilapidated 200 year-old brick apartments, here and there a broken down second-hand store, taverns with dirty windows, a cobbler leaning over his bench, alleys leading to dead ends, creaking stairways climbing to dingy homes, some clean and some not so clean.

2 p.m. — About half way down the street, a small crowd forms a circle. I rise on my toes and look over heads, to glimpse what is going on.

There on the sidewalk is a broken down bed, an old sofa, three rickety kitchen chairs, an overstuffed rocker, vintage 1913, with the horsehair trying to escape from the torn upholstery at one corner. Seated in this chair is a woman, at least in her sixties. Two small rugs, rolled up and tied with string are on the sofa.

A man with a soiled visored cap tries to edge thru the crowd. He snags his cigarette in the street and says, "What's going on?"

I edge toward the doorway to listen. A large woman with no stockings on her bulging lumpy legs, leans on a broom as she surveys the scene.

"They're tossing out the old lady for sixteen bucks rent." She seems bitter. "Imagine it, for sixteen bucks rent. She's been here ever since her husband died, and now she can't pay 16 lousy bucks and they're tossing her out."

"Well, what's she sitting there for?"

"She says if they take the furniture, they gotta take her, too. She musta been well off sometime. Lookit. She's got two rugs. Imagine it. Two rugs."

Two young girls stand nearby watching. One of them says, "Goin' to the dance Friday, Betty?"

The man who flicked his cigarette shakes his head and leaves.

The woman just sits there. A truck pulls up to take away the furniture. A big truck with lettering, "We move anything, anywhere."

A well dressed man moves through the crowd and walks to the woman.

"Who's that?" someone says.

A wan woman holding a bag of potatoes in her arms answers. "That's the man from the mission up the street."

The well dressed man leans over to talk to the woman, and soon they both walk off together.

I've been on my way to eat, but somehow I don't feel like eating right now. I guess I'll wait. The truck is loaded and rumbles down the street. The people vanish. I walk toward Tremont Street to get a bus, and I stop at the corner to wait.

A light newspaper truck pulls up and a burly man in overalls throws a bundle of late newspapers on the corner for the newsboy to pick up.

I glance down. One of the headlines reads, "Woman Sings Hillbilly Song and Wins $100,000."

The move went into effect Sunday.
